

CLINICAL PRACTICE WITH LGBTQ+ PATIENTS: AN INTERSUBJECTIVE/RELATIONAL APPROACH
LIVE ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Jonathan Lebolt PhD, LCSW-R, CGP
June 2, 2024, 10:00am-1:00pm
Course Number: A-012 (3.0 contact hours)

Bibliography

Barsness, R. (Ed.) (2018). Core competencies of relational psychoanalysis: A guide to practice, study and research. Routledge.

Cornett, C. (Ed.) (1993). Affirmative dynamic psychotherapy with gay men. Jason Aronson.

Dimen, M. (2011). With culture in mind: Psychoanalytic stories. Routledge.

Domenici, T. & Lesser, R. (Eds.) (1995). Disorienting sexuality: Psychoanalytic reappraisals of sexual identities. Routledge.

Gray, A. (2015). Living truthfully under imaginary circumstances: Improvisation in psychoanalysis. Psychoanalytic Dialogues, 25, 725–742.

Grossmark, R. (2018). The unobtrusive relational analyst: Explorations in psychoanalytic companionship. Routledge.

Guzzardi, S. (2024). Toward a queered psychology of the self: Empathy and passibility from the margins to the center. Psychoanalysis, Self and Context, 19, 33-48.

Lebolt, J. (1999). Gay affirmative psychotherapy: A phenomenological study. Clinical Social Work, 27, 355-370.

Malamed, C. (2022). A Safe Space to Play Dangerously: Contextualizing Gender Play in Therapy. Psychoanalytic Dialogues, 32, 198-206.

Suchet, M. (2011). Crossing Over. Psychoanalytic Dialogues, 2, 172-191.